

Kinderland Daycare Photo Release Form

At Kinderland Daycare we sometimes take pictures of our activities mostly for display on our classroom walls and to share with the parents. Some of these images could also be used on our web pages to illustrate the type of activities that take place at Kinderland Daycare and for special occasions or events. We need each parent to accept or decline what we can do with pictures of their child/children. Please read each description and initial each one if you accept or decline.
